Conference 2010 Update!

Thanks to everyone for another great conference this year. We had over 40 participants this year with 35 attendees, 1 teleconference participant, 4 sponsors, as well as several special guest speakers! A special thanks to volunteers who contributed their time to help make the conference a success as well as presenters who shared their valuable knowledge with others.

Let us know what you thought of the conference! Your input is important for the board members to improve our conference in future years. Your suggestions and comments are welcome!

Thank you to Scantron for sponsoring this conference evaluation service for FAIR!

Presenter Information....

If you presented at the conference, you will be receiving the results from your session evaluations via email from Scantron in the next week or so. Please direct any questions you have regarding your evaluations to Sandra.

Thank you to Paige Borden for continuing to serve as "Best Paper" committee chair. Paige is requesting anyone who is interested in serving on the best paper committee to contact her immediately at mborden@mail.ucf.edu. If you would like to be considered for best paper, please submit your paper to Paige by March 19th.

FAIR 2009 Best Paper Award & Travel Grant

Congratulations to Jesse Corragio, Maggie Tymms and Nicole Carr as recipients for the Fall 2009 Best Paper. Their paper entitled "Using Technology to Efficiently and Effectively Gather Information From Recent Alumni and Employers" will be presented at the AIR 2010 conference in Chicago, Illinois.

FAIR Best Paper Award guarantees a $500 travel grant to the primary author. If funds are available, additional grants will be considered for co-authors. Make sure to submit your FAIR 2010 paper for consideration by the April 23rd deadline.

New Officer!

Congratulations to Paige Borden, Director of Institutional Research from University of Central Florida who is the new FAIR President-Elect and 2010 conference program chair!

A special thanks to our Nominating/Election Committee member Lisa Murphy for assisting in the nomination process!
